Jefferson County Historic Landmarks Commission
May 22, 1992
Present: Miller, Theriault and Cagle.

Theriault reported he will be attending seminars in Morgantown on “Focus on Heritage Tourism” May 30.

A map of Civil War Sites in Jefferson County is being prepared.

The William Dreib-Farm has been designated as landmark by County Commission. It was agreed to ask Mr. and Mrs. Perzy, owners and owners of future designations, to pay $50.00 for plaque.

Cagle reported existing property on Cranes Lane to be developed by Marcus Enterprise. Originally part of Robert Warthington land grant. The farm is also being examined by Thunderbird Archaeological Associates, Inc., Woodstock, Virginia.

Greg Lane, County Commissioner, reported in their meeting that Michael Taylor has re-signed from this Commission.