Description of Buildings or Site (Original and Present)

___ 2 ___ Stories _____ Front Bays

This building was built in at least two stages. The stone section is two bays in width and may represent an hall-and-parlor plan. The wood section is of four bays, with an offset door suggestive of a side-passage interior plan. Extending across much of the facade is a two-story Mt. Vernon-esque portico with a balustrade along the roofline. Fenestration flat-topped with multi-light sash and exterior operable shutters.
